our research relates this to campaigns action in the area.

common problems of Docklands groups, and in carrying alternative plans for sites. In all this work Docklands stresses the capacity conclusions and met and to develop positive

Docklands Development Corporation on the area, the main focus of Docklands work has related to the impact of Docklands Development Corporation on the area, and the closure of Docklands came together to oppose the Governments in 1977 when community action groups throughout benefits local residents and workers. Docklands area primarily Docklands, trades councils, and other voluntary

Docklands Community Poster Project is a community co-

Docklands: The poster series was developed and published in conjunction with the Joint Docklands

Docklands showing originally as a sequence of 181 x 121 photographic prints on boardings throughout London.

The Changing Picture of Docklands was designed by the Docklands Community Poster Project and producing a series of travelling exhibitions on the

By the means of their special exhibition, and sympathetic documentation of key events and developments for use needed for specific campaigns.

Designing posters, banners, leaflets, etc., to assist local

Raising and funding campaigns.

The second cycle deals specifically with

The Docks Cycle Development. This series of postcards show the first

Docklands to deal with the wider implications of the Docklands Action Group.

There are four areas of work covered by the Docklands Development Corporation.

In order to publicise the views of local people in

Docklands, community action groups, trades councils, and other voluntary

Docklands Community Poster Project is a community co-

The Changing Picture of Docklands was designed by the Docklands Community Poster Project and

The

£14.50

TEL 01-480-5324

D.C.P.R. UNTIL 167 CANNON WORKSHOPS, WEST INDIA DOCK, LONDON

THE EMERGENCE

production and issues raised by the redevelopment.

£14.50

TEL 01-515-6999

ID A 6 CALE ST, LONDON E 1

© 1982

LEEDS POSTCARDS, PO BOX 84, LEEDS LS1 4HL ENGLAND
The people of Docklands will not allow themselves to be trampled under the feet of developers.
There has been a lot of talk about land - the planning of land, land for this, land for that. But Docklands is not...
understanding of the flesh-and-blood implications.

Consequences of planning stakes have a deep short-term gain, but those who live daily with the long-term environment for the developers destroy these long-term initiatives.

Use of economic and socially innovative strategies that restructure Docklands can be mobilized to create heritage and unique: their lives, such initiatives as the people's plan for the Royal Docks show how the human For local people it is their home, their history. Their
The developers see Docklands as a piece of real estate.

The changing picture of Docklands 8
The changing picture of Docklands 2

The LDDC is totally unaccountable to local people and ignores their needs. Immediately after taking control in 1981, it took the land which local authorities had acquired over many years with public funds to provide houses and jobs for local people. The LDDC scrapped these plans and started selling off the land to speculators.
BIG MONEY IS MOVING IN
They make a killing: the homes and jobs for local people.

Incentives — their incentives are subsidised by our taxes.

LIDC sees it only as an attractive showcase for private eight square miles of opportunity for London. But the side of the river east from Tower Bridge. It represents real estate in Europe. It stretches for nine miles on each

Docklands has been described as the biggest piece of

The changing picture of Docklands
DON'T LET IT PUSH OUT LOCAL PEOPLE

BIG MONEY IS MOVING IN
rise at an alarming rate.

Unemployment and housing waiting lists continue to at up to £120,000 each (and rising). Meanwhile

38184 400 and now there are 296 houses and flats for sale

This was then sold to a Dutch developer for only spent preparing the London Yard site on the Isle of Dogs.

people. For example, £250,000 of public funds were

Your rates subsidise Big Money at the expense of local

The changing picture of Docklands 4
BIG MONEY IS MOVING IN —Progress for Whom?

consulted and their needs are ignored. The question is for the right kind of development, but they are not that there are over 40,000 people in Docklands desperate community standing in the way of progress. The truth is an uninhabited wasteland or a small jumble
The developers project an image of Docklands as either

The changing picture of Docklands